TENNESSEE'S PHOEBE WRIGHT,
JESSICA PIXLER OF SEATTLE PACIFIC
LEAD ESPN THE MAGAZINE'S ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA®
WOMEN'S TRACK & CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. — Senior Phoebe Wright of Tennessee and senior Jessica Pixler of Seattle Pacific lead the 2009-10 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Women's Track and Field and Cross Country Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Wright and Pixler have been chosen as the winners of the Academic All-America® of the Year award in the University and College Divisions, respectively.

A Biochemistry, Cellular and Molecular Biology major with a 3.96 G.P.A., Wright is a nine-time All-American and a five-time NCAA champion. As a senior, she won the 800-meter run at the 2010 NCAA Division I Indoor and Outdoor Championships, becoming only the fifth woman in NCAA history to win both events in the same year. A seven-time Southeastern Conference champion, she won the 800-meter at this year's indoor and outdoor SEC championships. A member of the Lady Vols' SEC champion distance medley relay team, Wright was named the 2010 SEC Indoor Women's Runner of the Year.

A native of Signal Mountain, Tenn., Wright has a second major at Tennessee, studying Ecology and Evolutionary Biology. Wright, who began her career as a "walk-on" at Tennessee, owns two world records (indoor distance medley relay and outdoor 4x1500), three American and collegiate records and five school records. In addition to winning the SEC Scholar-Athlete Award for track and field, she was also honored as the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year for all sports.

A first team selection on the 2008-09 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Women's Track and Field and Cross Country University Division teams, she won six career titles at the Penn Relays. Wright is one of ten finalists for the Bowerman Award, presented to the top female track and field athlete in the nation.

The three-time NCAA Division II Cross Country national champion, Pixler is an English major with a 3.93 G.P.A. During her career at Seattle Pacific, she won 12 NCAA Division II championships, including the 1,500-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Championship last month. It marked the third time in four years that she won the event. Her time of 4:11.06 on March 26 at Stanford ranked fourth in the world in 2010 at that time.

At the NCAA Division II Indoor Track Championship, she captured her fourth straight title in the indoor mile and ran the anchor leg on the NCAA champion distance medley relay team.

The recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, Pixler was named as the Great Northwest Athletic Conference Athlete of the Year in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track this year. During her career, she was named as the GNAC Athlete of the Year ten times. In addition to winning the award in cross country four times, she was the GNAC Athlete of the Year in indoor track four times and won the outdoor track award twice.

A native of Sammamish, Wash., Pixler was honored as the Seattle Pacific Athlete of the Year for a record-setting fourth year in a row. She was also named the GNAC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and earned the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Athlete and Scholar Athlete of the Year award for the third straight year. She earned ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® Women's Track and Field and Cross Country first team honors in 2008 and was chosen to the second team last year.

A native of Dillsburg, Pa., Backel is a four-time All-Academic Big 12 pick and earned the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarship from the Big 12. She was also named the 2010 Oklahoma University College of Engineering's outstanding senior for Civil Engineering.

A Molecular & Cellular Biology major with a 3.62 G.P.A., Bizzarri won the NCAA individual cross country title in November in a school-record time and was honored as the Cross Country Athlete of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. She also received the Honda Sports Award for Cross Country. She is a three-time NCAA champion in the indoor 3,000-meter run and finished her career with nine All-American honors and seven Illinois school records. A native of Mason, Ohio, she was named as the Big Ten Conference Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year and won four Big Ten titles, including the 3,000 and 5,000 at the indoor meet and 1,500 and 5,000 at the outdoor event.

A Zoology major with a 4.00 G.P.A., Carlson won three outdoor and three indoor Summit League titles in 2010. She advanced to the NCAA Championships in the long jump and heptathlon where she finished 11th in the long jump at the NCAA Meet. Named as the Summit League's Indoor Track Athlete of the Year, she won conference indoor titles in the 60-hurdles, 200-meter run and the long jump. She won Summit League titles in the 100-hurdles, 400-hurdles and long jump at the outdoor meet. Named as a U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association All-American, she was also named as the Most Valuable Performer at the Summit League indoor meet. The Buchanan, N.D., native holds North Dakota State school records in five outdoor and three indoor events.

The school record holder in the indoor and outdoor pole vault at Tulsa, Clancy is a Mechanical Engineering major with a 4.00 G.P.A. Named All-Conference-USA three times, the Tucson, Ariz. native is a four-time C-USA Academic medalist. A member of the 2009 All-Academic C-USA team, she has been very involved in the Engineers Without Borders program.

The most decorated women's cross country runner in Arkansas-Little Rock history, Kerth is an Economics major with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A. The winner of ten Sun Belt Conference Runner of the Week awards in her career, she is the first UALR cross country runner to earn four straight All-Sun Belt Conference awards as well as four All-Region honors. During the track season, Kerth finished 10th in the 10,000-meter run at the Sun Belt Outdoor Championship. A member of the Beta Gamma Sigma Honor Society, she helped the UALR track and field team earn the Sun Belt Team Academic Award.

Areson, an Ecology and Evolutionary Biology major with a 3.62 G.P.A., earned two All-American honors and qualified for the NCAA Cross Country championship three times at Tennessee. She finished third in the 5000-meter and fourth in the 3000-meter at the 2010 NCAA Indoor Meet. She also won Southeastern Conference titles in the 5000-meter indoor run and the 5000-meter outdoor run. She was also a member of the SEC champion distance medley relay team at the indoor meet. A native of Delray Beach, Fla., she is a three-time member of the SEC All-Academic team.

A Political Science and History major with a perfect 4.00 G.P.A., Burggraf was awarded an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. She became the first Ohio Valley Conference student-athlete to become a two-time winner of the Steve Hamilton Award, which is based on athletics performance, good sportsmanship and citizenship. She won six OVC titles in her career, shattering her own OVC Championship record in the pole vault. She qualified for the NCAA Championship for a third consecutive season. A native of Marion, Ohio, she earned the John Burgess Awards as Austin Peay State University's top graduating Political Science major. She owns the OVC records in the indoor and outdoor pole vault.

The most decorated track and field athlete to compete at Minnesota, Dorniden is the first Gopher track and cross country runner to compete in every NCAA Championship in a career. A Kinesiology major with a 3.95 G.P.A., she is a nine-time All-American who earned eight All-American honors in the 800-meter run and one honor in the distance medley relay. The first national champion in Minnesota history, the Inver Grove Heights, Minn. native won the NCAA Indoor title in the 800-meter run in 2006. A member of six Big Ten Conference champion teams, she led the Golden Gophers to four Top-12 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country Championship Meets.
