SELECTED BY CoSIDA

FOR RELEASE

Thursday, June 23, 2011 – 10 a.m. (EDT)

JORDAN HASAY OF OREGON, SHANNON GAGNE OF
NEW HAVEN TOP CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA®
WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD/CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Sophomore Jordan Hasay of the University of Oregon and graduate student Shannon Gagne of the University of New Haven lead the 2011 Capital One Academic All-America® Women's Track & Field/Cross Country Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Hasay and Gagne have been chosen as the winners of the Academic All-America® of the Year award in the University and College Divisions, respectively.

A Human Physiology major with a 3.96 G.P.A., Hasay is the first sophomore ever to be named as the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year in any sport.

She won two NCAA indoor championships this year while leading Oregon to its second consecutive national championship. At the NCAA Indoor Meet, the Arroyo Grande, Cal. native posted first place finishes in the one-mile run and the 3,000-meter run.

The Pacific-10 Conference cross country champion in the Fall, she captured third place at the NCAA Cross Country Championship Meet.

Named as the USTFCCCA National Indoor Track Athlete of the Year, she won three Pacific-10 championships this year. In addition to the Pac-10 cross country title, she captured titles in the 1500-meter and the 5,000-meter runs.

At the NCAA Outdoor Meet, she earned first team All-American honors in the 1500-meter run and the 5000-meter run, helping Oregon finish as national runners-up.

A graduate student who is pursuing her Master's degree in National Security, Gagne has a 3.95 graduate G.P.A. Honored as the USTFCCCA Division II Women's Indoor and Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year, she graduated from the University of New Haven with a degree in Criminal Justice and a 3.93 G.P.A.

Honored as the Northeast-10 Conference Woman of the Year, she was also named as the Northeast-10 Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A six-time All-American, she led New Haven to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division II Indoor Track Championship and a ninth place showing at the Division II Outdoor Track Meet.

In 2011, she won five individual national championships. At the NCAA indoor meet, she won titles in the 200-meter run, the 400-meter run and the long jump. At the NCAA outdoor meet, she finished first in the 200-meter run and the 400-meter run. Her five national championships make her one of just three student-athletes at the Division II level to ever accomplish the feat in one year.

At the 2011 Northeast-10 Conference outdoor track championships, Gagne won four titles as she led New Haven to a second place finish.

A native of Meriden, Conn., Gagne was UNH's Hatfield Scholar Recipient, which is awarded for competitive scholarship for honors students only. She is the head volunteer for the school's legal society and volunteers at the West Haven Community House, serving as a student mentor.

Hasay is joined on the Capital One Academic All-America® University Division Women's Track & Cross Country first team by two repeat selections, seniors Whitney Carlson of North Dakota State and Kimberly Williams of Florida State.
