SELECTED BY CoSIDA

FOR RELEASE:

Tuesday, June 19 – 12 noon (EDT)

TIM NELSON OF WISCONSIN-STOUT, ELIZABETH PHILLIPS OF WASHINGTON (MO.) LEAD CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® DIVISION III TRACK & FIELD/CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS

TOWSON, Md. – Seniors Tim Nelson of the University of Wisconsin-Stout and Elizabeth Phillips of Washington University (Mo.) lead the 2012 Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's and Women's Track & Field/Cross Country Teams, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Nelson and Phillips have been chosen as the Capital One Academic All-America® of the Year Division III award winners for men's and women's track & field/cross country, respectively.

The Capital One Division III Academic All-America® program is being financially supported by the NCAA Division III national governance structure to assist CoSIDA with handling the awards fulfillment aspects for the 2011-12 D-III Academic All-America® teams program.

A business administration major with a 3.64 G.P.A., Nelson capped his illustrious track and field career by sweeping national championships in the 5,000-meter run and the 10,000-meter run at the 2012 NCAA Division III outdoor championship. Nelson helped the Blue Devils finish third at the NCAA Division III championship meet. He also won a national title in the 5,000-meter run at the 2012 NCAA Division III Indoor championship. A native of Augusta, Wis., Nelson was selected as the USTFCCCA outdoor track Athlete of the Year in 2012 and posted the third-best time in Division III history in the 5,000-meter run at the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship.

At the 2011 NCAA Division III cross country championship meet, Nelson turned in the best finish ever by a Wisconsin-Stout runner when he placed fourth. He also finished third at the NCAA Midwest Regional and won the WIAC individual title. He has one year of eligibility remaining in cross country.

A biomedical engineering major with a 4.00 G.P.A., Phillips ended her career as the most decorated track & field student-athlete in the history of Washington (Mo.). A native of Homer Glenn, Ill., Phillips is the first-ever three-time NCAA Elite 88/89 Award winner in track/cross country with one selection for cross country in 2011 and two for track in 2010 and 2011.

This past fall, Phillips led the Bears to their first NCAA cross country championship in program history with a 40th-place individual finish.

A seven-time All-American in track, Phillips finished third in the nation in the mile run and was national runner-up as part of the distance medley relay at the 2012 NCAA Division III indoor track & field championship. At the NCAA outdoor championship, Phillips finished sixth in the 1,500-meter run. Phillips earned a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship.

Senior Kale Booher of Ohio Wesleyan is the only repeat selection on the Capital One Academic All-America® Division III Men's Track & Field/Cross Country first team. He earned first team notice on the College Division team last year and was a second team selection as a sophomore.
